Sunday 21 st	Private Mass	John & James Kelly RIP
	Private Prayer from 10:00am - 12 noon

The church will be open next weekend for private prayer at the times shown above on Saturday and Sunday.

Next weekend the church will be open at the following times for private prayer.

On Saturday 20th June the church will be open from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. On Sunday 21st June the church will be open from 10:00am to 12 noon. During these hours the church will be available to come and pray privately. There will be no led devotions and there will be no service taking place. Although the church will be open during these times it should be understood that during this period of social distancing that we are going through there is no obligation to attend church during these times. Indeed, if you fall within one of the at risk categories my advice to you would be to stay safe at home. Please also stay away from the church if you are showing clear symptoms of the coronavirus.

If you are intending to come to church next weekend please be aware of the following restrictions:

- There will be no toilet facilities available
- The church doors will be locked until 5:00pm (Saturday) and 10:00am (Sunday), so please do not arrive before these times as this will create an unnecessary gathering outside of the church. As there is no service taking place there is no requirement to "be there for 5" or "be there for 10"
- Social distancing will be maintained at all times

- Please bring and use your own personal protection equipment. (Hand sanitiser will be available at church)
- There will be no votive stand available and no lighting of candles.
- Gatherings around statues (or anywhere within or outside of the church) should be avoided.
- Please do not touch the statues.
- Ushers will direct you to your seats to help maintain social distancing and to keep the necessary cleaning down to a minimum.
- If you need a cushion to sit on you will need to bring your own cushion with you (since the church cushions have been removed from the pews).
- There will be a one-way system in operation in the church - again to help maintain social distancing.
- A newsletter will be available as you exit the church (to be taken with you).

The funeral for Tess Chilton will take place on Wednesday 24th of June (the Feast of the Birthday of John the Baptist). Please keep Tess and her family in your prayers at this time, and especially on that day. There will be a live stream available for Tess's funeral service. Details of how to access this will be given in next week's Newsletter.

Please also pray for Jean Marie Williams and her family. Jean Marie's funeral is taking place on Wednesday 17th June.

Feast of Corpus Christi.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me; That with your saints,
I may be praising you forever and ever.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion.

Although you are still unable to attend mass at church I continue to encourage you to follow a Sunday service online using one of the many broadcasts available online down www.mcnmedia.tv. Although you cannot receive Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament at the moment you can make a Spiritual Communion (see above prayer):

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen. (St Alphonsus Ligouri)

Sacrament of Confession

Although it is not possible (unless a person is in danger of death) to go to confession at this time, God's love knows no bounds and His mercy has no limits. It is, therefore, understood, that all that is required of you, and what the Bishops of England and Wales are encouraging all of us to do, is to make a sincere examination of conscience and a heartfelt confession to God of our sins accompanied by a firm intention to go to confession to a priest as soon as you are able to in the future.

An Act of Contrition

O my God, because you are so good, I am very sorry that I have sinned against You, and with the help of Thy grace, I will not sin again.

Parish Collections:

During these difficult times the last thing in the world I would want to do would be to place any undue financial burden on you - so that is the first and most important thing. This is not in any way a request or an appeal for money. However, if you do want to continue your donations during this current lock-down there is a donate button (top right) on the home page of the diocesan website - www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk. From there donations which can also be gift aided and can be made to any parish via credit or debit card. There will however be a transaction charge levied by the card processing company of 20p + 1.9% of the value of the donation. Another way of donating is to set up a standing order. To do this you need to download and printing-off and fill in the Standing Order and Gift Aid instructions and send them to me to fill in the parish bank account details and forward it on to the diocese. The forms and instructions are available online down Archdiocese of Birmingham Finance Resources
