Volunteers needed. We could really do with some more volunteers to help out during the church services - to help keep the parish safe during the coronavirus pandemic. If you are interested and are not a member of one of the identified high-risk groups please let Fr Roger or Deacon David know. There will be a special training session on Sunday 27th September at 3:00pm.

Second collections: Because of the coronavirus lockdown we have not been able to take the usual 2nd collections in support of the various charities that are in desperate need during these difficult times. As a consequence of there we will now be a 2nd collection taken every weekend from now until the end of the year.

Forty Days for Life: The Autumn campaign will be held outside BPAS in Station Rd, Kings Norton. The vigil begins this Wednesday 23rd Sept. - the Feast of St Padre Pio, and will run until the Feast of All Saints, 1st Nov. Famous Examples of Deathbed Conversions

Doc Holiday

John Henry "Doc" Holiday, became friends with the local Catholic priest, Father Edward, and began to learn the teachings about Christ. He also had a friend, Martha Anne "Mattie" Holiday, who also happened to be his first cousin with whom he regularly wrote throughout his life who herself became a Catholic Nun in later life. The Glenwood Springs Ute Chief of November 12, 1887, wrote and published his obituary, stating that Holliday had been baptized in the Catholic Church.

King Charles II

Charles II reigned in an Anglican nation at a time of strong religious conflict. Though his sympathies were at least somewhat with the Roman Catholic faith, he ruled as an Anglican, though he attempted to lessen the persecution and legal penalties affecting non-Anglicans in England, notably through the Royal Declaration of Indulgence. As he lay dying following a stroke, released of all political constraints, he was received into the Catholic Church

Oscar Wilde

Author and wit Oscar Wilde converted to Catholicism during his final days on the morning before he died. The Passionist house in Avenue Hoche, has a house journal which contains a record, written by Father Cuthbert Dunne, of his having received Wilde into full communion with the Church. While Wilde's conversion may have come as a surprise, he had long maintained an interest in the Catholic Church, having met with Pope Pius IX in 1877 and describing the Roman Catholic Church as "for saints and sinners alone - for respectable people, the Anglican Church will do". In his poem Ballad of Reading Gaol, Wilde wrote:

Ah! Happy they whose hearts can break and peace of pardon win!
How else may man make straight his plan and cleanse his soul from Sin?
How else but through a broken heart may Lord Christ enter in?

The Repentant Thief (Luke 23:33-43)

The most famous deathbed conversion of them all! "Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom". "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."
