Join us for time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament

*** Owing to the lockdown announced yesterday it looks like we will not be able to celebrate Mass publically next Sunday. We are, however, still awaiting instruction from the diocese on this.

This weekend's 2nd collection: The Clergy Training Fund

Next weekend's 2nd collection: The Catholic Education Service

Christmas services advanced notice: The Christmas services this year will have to abide by any government Covid restrictions that may still be in place. One difficulty that we will have with the Carol service is that we are not allowed to sing anymore! We do however hope to have a candlelit Carol service on Sunday 20th December with the carols being played on our sound system or sung by a soloist or choir. We also plan to have our traditional Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services. Under the current rules, the church has a strict limit to the number of people it can accommodate. To help us plan for this the stewards at mass are currently asking for numbers of people who will be coming to these services so please do let them know - or you can email Deacon David on deaconwarley@gmail.com. The times of the services will be advertised in due course. We may have to make the celebrations ticket-only this year.

Please Pray for...
