Sunday 21 st	10:00am	Sunday Mass	Holy Souls
-------------------------	---------	-------------	------------

There is no 2nd collection this week.

Next week: 2nd collection is for the Catholic Youth Service

THERE IS NO HEATING in church again this weekend. This delay is due to the ill health of key people who were due to connect up the new heater. This work should be done in the next few days and we anticipate that the new heating system will be fully operational by the middle of this coming week. It might however, in case something else happens this week to delay the work further, be wise to wear something warm if you are attending mass here at St Hubert's next weekend (just in case). Please feel free also to phone the presbytery towards the end of the week to check to see if it has been connected up - phone number: 0121 422 2388.

If you feel especially cold this weekend or feel at risk of catching a chill, please do speak with one of the welcomers and they will assist you. You could either consider leaving early - or having a spell in the conference room which will be kept warm - perhaps have a hot drink.

Remembering the Fallen. At the end of the 10:00 Sunday mass we shall be observing the traditional two minutes silence for the fallen of the two great wars of the last century as well as all those who have lost their lives in the many conflicts and wars that have continued to rage on throughout the world since that time.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

Robert Laurence Binyon

Sunday 14th November: Lodge Hill, Widney Manor

Sunday 21st November: Thimblemill followed by Uplands, Kings Norton, Robin Hood

Sunday 28th November: St Paul's Rd., Wythall

A REQUEST FROM FR NICHOLAS LATHAM - Fr Nicholas has sent us a request, some of you may know that his family lived locally, and that he was baptised here. Reading the parish history, he is drawn to chapter 4 which talks about the school in wartime. He asks if anybody remembers a teacher, who is mentioned, Maria Latham (Mary Josephine Latham) who was at the school in 1943. If anybody does, he would be delighted to hear from you on his email fr.nicholas.latham@rcaob.org.uk or speak to Fr Roger or Deacon David.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY - in the unlikely event that we need to empty the church in an emergency please make sure you are aware of the fire escape routes. One is located at the entrance door that you will have come through as you entered the church. The second is through the toilet corridor and conference room. If we need to evacuate, please do not leave, but rather gather on the grass lawn at the side of the church.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION - is available every Saturday from 5.30 pm before mass and by appointment with Fr Roger.

PARISH CENSUS- If you would like to fill in a census form you will find them at the back of the church, they need to be handed to Ann Williams, our safeguarding officer, to comply with the general data protection rules (GDPR).

GOING INTO HOSPITAL - It is important that you notify the parish or ask to be referred to the relevant catholic chaplain, if you or a member of your family are admitted into hospital, if you would like a chaplain to visit, not all hospitals, ask your religion when you are admitted and not all hospitals give lists of Catholic patients to chaplains.

Please Pray for...

The Fallen of the two great wars of the last century and all those who have died in conflicts that have occurred since.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow.

In Flanders fields.

John McCrae
