A Second Collection this week is for Catholic Communications

Spiritual Communion Prayer.

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

There will be no First Sunday Rosary next Sunday. This will be said instead on Sunday June 13th

In Case of Emergency: please make sure you are aware of the fire escape routes. One is located at the main entrance door that you will have come entered the church by. The second is through the toilet corridor and conference room. If we need to evacuate, please do not leave the site, but gather on the grass lawn at the side of the church.

'Emmaus Academy' Foundation Governor: Have you ever considered taking on the role of school governance. The multi-school academy, of which our primary school is a member, is looking for a new foundation governor. If you are interested, please look at the notice board for details, or take home an information sheet.

A day of celebration is taking place at St Chad's Cathedral on Saturday 18th June, starting at midday with mass and dedication of the altar. There will be an opportunity to visit a special historical exhibition in the diocesan archives which will also include guest speakers. Booking is essential and the day will finish at 4 pm.

Men's Group: The next meeting will be on Monday 13th June. This is a week later than normal to avoid any clash with the Queens Jubilee bank holiday. We will meet at 7 pm in the conference room.

Going into Hospital: It is important that you notify the parish or ask to be referred to the relevant catholic chaplain, if you or a member of your family are admitted into hospital, if you would like a chaplain to visit, not all hospitals, ask your religion when you are admitted and not all hospitals give lists of Catholic patients to chaplains.

Sacrament of Reconciliation - is available every Saturday immediately after 10 am mass, and from 5.30 pm during the rosary, before mass and by appointment with Fr Roger.

Security: Please ensure that you take care of your own property (handbags, phones etc.) Always, while at the church.

Parish Census: If you would like to fill in a census form you will find them at the back of the church, they need to be handed to Ann Williams, our safeguarding officer, to comply with the general data protection rules (GDPR).

Pauline-Marie Jaricot (22 July 1799 - 9 January 1862) was a French laywoman, the founder of the Society of the Propagation of the Faith and the Association of the Living Rosary. She was declared Venerable by Pope John XXIII in 1963 and was beatified last Sunday, 22nd May 2022 in Lyon.

The youngest of seven children of Antoine and Jeanne Jaricot in Lyon, France. Her father owned a silk factory in Lyon, her brother, Philéas, was a missionary in Quangnam. At the age of seventeen, after a serious fall and the death of her mother, Jaricot began to lead a life of intense prayer, and on Christmas Day, 1816, took a vow of perpetual virginity. She established a union of prayer among pious servant girls, the members of which were known as the "Réparatrices du Sacré-Coeur de Jésus-Christ".

As a member of an association founded by the Fathers of the Foreign Missions of Paris, Jaricot was a pioneer of organized missionary co-operation. With the women employees in the silk factory run by her sister and brother-in-law, she resolved to help the missions with prayers and a small weekly contribution of one penny a week from each person involved. The seed grew and other groups joined to help all missions. This eventually led to the founding of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in 1822, dedicated to helping missionary efforts worldwide.

As a member of the Third Order of St. Dominic, Jaricot's spiritual director for many years, was John Vianney. In 1822, Jaricot arranged the printing and distribution of religious literature; she believed that information about the missions should be publicized. Around 1845 Jaricot purchased a blast furnace plant to be run as a model of Christian social reform. A building adjacent to the plant accommodated the families, and close by was a school and a chapel. She left the management to people who proved to be dishonest, and she was forced to declare bankruptcy in 1862. Having exhausted all her money, she spent the rest of her life destitute. She died on January 9, 1862 in Lyon.
