Security: Please ensure that you take care of your own property (handbags, phones etc.) Always, while at the church.

In Case of Emergency: please make sure you are aware of the fire escape routes. Instructions with a map / diagram are located at various points. In the case of an evacuation please gather on the grass lawn at the side of the church.

Parish Census: Census forms are available at the back of the church, they need to be handed to Ann Williams, our safeguarding officer, to comply with the general data protection rules (GDPR).

There will be a MacMillan Coffee morning on Saturday 24th September around 10:30 - 11:00 am start. Please try and come along to support this worthy cause. If you are unavailable to attend but would like to support the Macmillan nurses and the work that they do perhaps you might like to make a donation instead. Just put your donation in a sealed envelope marked for the Macmillan Coffee Morning and put it into the church collection or give it to Jayne Quigley, Fr Roger or Deacon David. We would also be grateful if you have any prizes that we could use for the tombola/raffle. Afaan - these can be given to Father Roger or Deacon David or Jayne any time before 24th
Thank you in advance for your support.

Message from Cardinal Vincent Nichols

On 21 April 1947, on her twenty-first birthday, Princess Elizabeth said, 'I declare before you all that my whole life whether it be long or short shall be devoted to your service.'

Now, seventy-five years later, we are heartbroken in our loss at her death, and so full of admiration for the unfailing way in which she fulfilled that declaration.

Even in my sorrow, shared with so many around the world, I am filled with an immense sense of gratitude for the gift to the world that has been the life of Queen Elizabeth II.

At this time, we pray for the repose of the soul of Her Majesty. We do so with confidence, because the Christian faith marked every day of her life and activity.

In her Millennium Christmas message, she said, 'To many of us, our beliefs are of fundamental importance. For me the teachings of Christ and my own personal accountability before God provide a framework in which I try to lead my life. I, like so many of you, have drawn great comfort in difficult times from Christ's words and example.'

This faith, so often and so eloquently proclaimed in her public messages, has been an inspiration to me, and I am sure to many. The wisdom, stability and service which she consistently embodied, often in circumstances of extreme difficulty, are a shining legacy and testament to her faith.

Our prayer is that she is now received into the merciful presence of God, there to be reunited with her beloved Prince Philip. This is the promise of our faith, and our deep consolation.

Queen Elizabeth II will remain, always, a shining light in our history. May she now rest in peace.

We pray for His Majesty the King, as he assumes his new office even as he mourns his mother.

God save the King.
