Brandhall Hub Fund Raiser: Councillor Jay Anandou is climbing up Ben Nevis in order to raise funds for the Brandhall Hub. He has set up a gofundme page so for you to donate to. Alternatively just place your donation in an envelope and clearly mark it "Councillor Jay's Sponsored walk" or "Ben Nevis" - or anything similar!

You can scan this QR Code through your mobile phone Camera to reach the GoFundme above page

Brandhall hub recently won an award for service to the community within the Oldbury area. Congratulations to them and a big tank you to all our volunteers who help out there. Any further offers of volunteer assistance will always be gratefully recieved. Every Wednesday afternoon from 1pm to 3pm there is now a knit and knatter group!

There will be a Macmillan Coffee morning on 30th September, around 10:30 - 11:00 am start. Please try and come along to support this worthy cause. If you are unavailable to attend but would like to support the Macmillan nurses and the work that they do perhaps you might like to make a donation instead. Just put your donation in a sealed envelope marked for the Macmillan Coffee Morning and put it into the church collection or give it to Jayne Quigley, Fr Roger or Deacon David. We would also be grateful if you have any prizes that we could use for the tombola/raffle. Again - these can be given to Father Roger or Deacon David or Jayne any time before 30th. Thank you in advance for your support.
