MIDLAND CATHOLIC HISTORY SOCIETY

REGISTERED CHARITY NO. 1098177

The Society promotes interest in the history of Catholics in the Midlands since the Reformation through publications, meetings and outings

The journal of the Society, now in its thirtieth year of publication, provides a platform for new research into local Catholic history, parish histories and archival material. Much of the contents relates to the territory covered by the Archdiocese of Birmingham, but contributions relating to neighbouring Midlands counties are also very welcome. A full list of the contents of all thirty issues of the journal is available on the Society website.

All over the Midlands there are people engaged in local research and writing parish histories which ought to have a wider readership and Midland Catholic History is the ideal platform for their publication.

Recent visits with the Society:

- Dorchester Abbey and St Birinus
- Oulton Abbey, Staffs.
- Spetchley Park, Worcs.

Annual subscription - Individual £8.00

- Joint/family £11.00

Apply via website:

<https://midlandcatholichistory.org.uk/>

Or to secretary at the address/email below

'The Midland Catholic History Society has played a vital role in documenting and recounting the rich and varied experience of Catholics in the post-Reformation period. As President of the Society I am happy to give my support to the present effort to expand its membership so that its work can continue.'

The Most Reverend Bernard Longley, Archbishop of Birmingham
