There will be a Macmillan Coffee morning on Saturday 28th September, around 10:30 - 11:00 am start. Please try and come along to support this worthy cause. If you are unavailable to attend but would like to support the Macmillan nurses and the work that they do perhaps you might like to make a donation instead. Just put your donation in a sealed envelope marked for the Macmillan Coffee Morning and put it into the church collection or give it to Jayne Quigley, Fr Roger or Deacon David. We would also be grateful if you have any prizes that we could use for the tombola/raffle. Again - these can be given to Father Roger or Deacon David or Jayne any time before 28th

Thank you in advance for your support.

The Bishops' Conference: have created a webpage on their website down: <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/election24/> with information about the issues important to Catholics. His Grace Archbishop Bernard encourages us all to visit this webpage.
